International Workshop

Rome, June 10th, 2022, 09:00 a.m.

AULA 10, School of Economics and Business Studies – Roma Tre University (Via Silvio D'Amico, 77)

Erasmus+ Jean Monnet Project “Understanding European Economic Policy: Towards a Deeper Union”

The project, financed by the European Commission, promotes studies, knowledge, monitoring activities and international spread about EU economic policy over a wide range of target groups to stimulate knowledge transfer and cross-fertilization.

Official partners: Sapienza University of Rome, Manlio Masi Foundation, University of Sannio and the London School of Economics

It focuses on two of the most important EU economic policies: Trade and Cohesion and is organized in two main actions:

- The creation and continuous update of an open-access web serving as a hub for materials concerning EU economic policy. We release quarterly a web archive on Cohesion and Trade policy materials.
- A calendar of national and international events on EU policies.

Past Events

- International Workshop “Cohesion Policy: Evidence-based Lessons for Digital and Green Recovery in Europe”, co-organized with the London School of Economics and Political Science and the European Regional Science Association (ERSA).
- Workshop: “The Future of International Trade: A Focus on EU and Trade Policy”. Co-organized with the Italian Trade Study Group (ITSG), Manlio Masi Foundation and Sapienza University of Rome.
- Seventeen Meetings of GDS17 Study Group. The events have been organized in partnership with Sapienza University of Rome.
- 4 Editions of the School for Advanced Training (Rossi-Doria Centre): Evaluation of Public Policy Impact Assessment. Concepts, Methods, Applications.

Set of deliverables including video recordings and webinars of all our events (available on our web site).
